Baby steps into motivic homotopy theory

In this talk, we shall give a brief introduction the homotopy theory of schemes introduced by Morel and Voevodsky. First, we shall see the historical motivation behind these stuff. Then we shall sketch the construction of $\mathbb{A}^1$-homotopy category. If time permits, we shall focus on its application to enumerative geometry.